

JAIST and Japanese company Financial Support Program for Vietnamese Students in Master Degree Course

<1. OBJECTIVES>

Many Japanese companies are currently interested in employing good Vietnamese students who have completed master degree courses in Japan. But, it is not easy for them as almost all Vietnamese students return to Vietnam after finishing their master course. Now, JAIST starts a new financial support program collaborating with a Japanese company, MITANI SANGYO. The program provides opportunities for excellent Vietnamese students to study in JAIST master degree course, then to work for MITANI SANGYO that has a wish for such students to be a leader of MITANI SANGYO GROUP in Vietnam in the future.

<2. JAIST>

Japan Advanced Institute of Science and Technology, called JAIST, is the first specialized graduate school in Japan with its own independent campus in Nomi, Ishikawa. JAIST conducts a Collaborative Education Program with VNU.

<3. MITANI SANGYO>

MITANI SANGYO is the enterprise that runs a variety of businesses mainly based in Japan and Vietnam. MITANI SANGYO set up operations in Vietnam 25 years ago, and now has eight subsidiary companies and more than 4,000 employees.

<4. AMOUNT OF SCHOLARSHIP>

MITANI SANGYO will pay financial aid amounting to 4,267,100 JPY towards tuition fees and basic living costs while they are in JAIST for intensive Japanese courses (three months) and master degree course (two years). In addition travel expenses will be covered by MITANI SANGYO.

- 1. Tuition fees: 1,383,600 JPY (incl. screening fee and entrance fee) + Living costs: 2,400,000 JPY (100,000JPY ×24months) for master degree course
 - 2. Tuition fees: 183,500 JPY (incl. screening fee and entrance fee) + Living costs: 300,000 JPY (100,000JPY ×3months) for intensive Japanese course
 - 3. Travel expenses from Vietnam to JAIST: 100,000 JPY
- : TOTAL: 4,367,100JPY (1JPY≐215.45VND)

<5.REQUIREMENTS>

The scholarship students must work for MITANI SANGYO more than four years after getting master degree at JAIST. They must report their student life and research activities to the company every month. If you decide not to work for MITANI SANGYO, they must refund the total amount of scholarship to the company.

<6. SCHEDULE>

JUL. 2019: Intensive Japanese Classes will begin.

OCT. 2019: Entrance Ceremony will take place and classes will begin for the Master degree course.

SEP. 2021: Degree Conferment Ceremony will be held.

OCT.2021: Scholarship students will start to work for MITANI SANGYO.

<7. IF YOU NEED FURTHER INFORMATION>

Send email to the Admissions Service Section in JAIST (nyugaku@jaist.ac.jp).